OUR Campaign Sheet.

EDITION EXHAUSTED.

UNPARALLELED DEMAND
FROM THE PEOPLE

Notwithstanding the edition of our Campaign Sheet No. 1 was thought to be large, the demand for it has been four-fold what we expected; so that the entire Edition was exhausted nearly as soon as the Press had ceased printing.

We shall, however, put Campaign Sheet No. 2 to press as soon as possible, and without fail issue it SATURDAY, September 26.

It will contain a great variety of matter, including a full Report of the Demonstration in Pittsburgh on the evening of the 22d, and the Great Mass Meeting on the 24th. It will contain a Speech by Senator Morton, of Ind.; by Senator Drake, of Missouri; and Speeches by other eminent Statesmen, including, it is expected, the Hon. E. M. STANTON. Also, Songs, and much other matter adapted to the Campaign.

Orders for No. 1, received after the edition was exhausted, unless otherwise directed, will be filled by No. 2.

We have to ask that Committees and others send in their orders as early as possible, so that we may form some idea what edition to print.

Price $2 a hundred copies.

The Spanish Insurrection.

LONDON, September 21.—Dispatches from Madrid state that the Queen of Spain's Admiral, Topet, and all the naval force off Cadiz had revolted. The Generals recently banished had returned and joined in the revolt. Marshal De La Torre headed the movement. Several towns have joined in the insurrection, and the most intense panic prevailed at the Court. Troops have been dispatched South, General Cache taking command.

A rumor prevailed in Paris Saturday that Queen Isabella had abdicated.

PARIS, September 21.—Some reports say that the rising in Spain is not a movement of the Liberals alone, but is supported by all parties. It is stated that the revolutionists have failed at some points, owing to want of leaders. The rumor that Queen Isabella will abdicate is generally discredited. The Moniteur publishes exciting intelligence received yesterday from Spain, and says the reported accession of some of the crews of the fleet at Madrid to the revolutionary movements, gives gravity to the news, but the accounts so far are imperfect. It is certain, however, that Gonzales Bravo, of the Ministry, has resigned, and that General Concha has been summoned to Madrid to form a cabinet. At last accounts the capital remained quiet. The Moniteur adds, this event prevented the Queen of Spain from meeting Emperor Napoleon again, as she left St. Sebastian for Madrid.

LONDON, September 21—Midnight.—The following news has been received from Spain: The resignations of Gonzalez Bravo and the members of his cabinet have been accepted. A parley has been held between Royal officers and some of the rebel leaders, the result of which is not known. A body of rebels fourteen thousand strong have gathered near Valladolid to intercept the Queen and prevent her from returning to Madrid. The whole of Andalusia is in the hands of the revolutionists. It is rumored that the revolutionists are acting in support of the interest of the Duke of Montpensier. Great excitement prevails in the city of Madrid.

TRIESTE, September 21.—The steamer Frolic, of Admiral Farragut's squadron, has gone to Venice.

LONDON, September 1.—Anson Burlingame and the Chinese Embassy have arrived in this city, and are stopping at the Grosvenor Hotel.

Military Convention.

MUNICH, September 21.—A military convention of the South German States commences its session to-day.

Tour of King William.

BERLIN, September 21.—The King of Prussia has been received with great enthusiasm on his tour through Holstein and at the city of Hamburg, where he is now stopping.

HAMBURG, September 21.—King William of Prussia arrived in this city yesterday. He came up the river Elbe on board the steamship Hammonia. When within a short distance of the city the schooner ran aground on a sand bank and was unable to get off. After some delay the King and officers of the Royal staff embarked on a small steamboat, and were brought to the city. The King meets with a hearty welcome from the citizens wherever he makes his appearance. To-day his Majesty made a visit to the Bourse and in reply to an address said: "Peace is desired by all. I have the surest hope that it will not be broken. My speech at Kiel was intended to give the strongest assurance of that hope, and I cannot understand how opposite impressions could have been derived from the words I used on that occasion." The explanation was received with great cheering.

LIMA, OHIO.

Central Ohio M. E. Conference—Church Statistics—Findlay, Ohio, Next Place of Meeting—Lay Delegation—A Southern Book Concern.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

LIMA, OHIO, September 21, 1868.

The Central Ohio M. E. Conference continued its sessions to-day. After the usual preliminary services, the late Treasurer of the Conference Missionary Society, W. S. Paul, reported his account, which was referred to a special committee, with instructions to report next session.

A certificate was read by Bishop Thompson to the effect that on the 20th instant he had ordained as Deacons the following persons: Dwight R. Cook, Alex. Cooke, R. B. Pope, J. W. Miller, G. W. Robinson, J. Whistler, W. R. Morris, T. Hines and Chas. Farnsworth.

The statistics of the year were then read by the Secretary as follows: Number of church members, 16,916; number of deaths, 198; probationists, 2,109; local preachers, 158; adults baptised 1,351; children baptised 504; churches, 290; probable value, $603,000; parsonages, 58, probable value $75,625; amount collected for superannuated preachers, $1,815 75; for missionary societies, $10,000 50; for tract society, $86 29; for American Bible Society, $1,912 28; for Sunday School Unions, $236 61; for churches extension, $464 28; number of Sunday Schools, 289; number of officers and teachers, 3,495; number of scholars, 22,351; number of volumes in libraries, 30,788.

On motion, the Bishop was requested to appoint Rev. G. W. Collier to the position of chaplain in the Soldiers' Home, as requested by the Grand Army of the Republic. Reports of Committee on Education and Board of Stewards were read and adopted.

The Bishop announced the transfer of Rev. Benton J. Hardley from North Ohio Conference to this. He, with John W. White, of Cincinnati, were then introduced to Conference.

A valuable watch was presented to Rev. Franklin Maryatt, relieving the Presiding Elder of the Lima district, by the preachers of said district. Rev. Wm. L. Harris made the presentation speech, which was feelingly responded to by the recipient.

Findley, Ohio, was then named as the place of the next annual Conference. Committee's reports on local missions, tract cause, periodical, pastoral address, and lay delegations, were read and adopted. The last named committee offered a resolution requesting a full vote of the churches on the questions submitted on the subject.

A statement of the plan of endowment of the Ohio Western University was made by Chaplain McCabe, and a resolution by Prof. Wm. G. Williams that members of Conference pay particular attention to the explanation of this plan, and endeavor to procure subscriptions immediately, was carried.

Rev. J. M. Walden, of the Western book concern, Cincinnati, made some remarks on the condition of said interest, and launched on the political situation, by saying that should certain things happen, as he hoped to God they would, they could establish and maintain a book concern in the South. But should other results take place on the second Tuesday of October, it would be impolitic to attempt the publication of documents in the South. Adjourned till to-morrow.

Public Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—The new spectacular drama of the "White Fawn" was presented last evening for the first time, to a large audience, and notwithstanding the fact that the management had not time to prepare fully for its presentation, it was very satisfactorily performed. There are more beautiful scenery, brilliant costumes, and dazzling mechanical effects, and less objectionable features in the "Fawn" than there was in the "Black Crook." The dancing of the peerless Morlacchi was rapturously applauded last evening, as our theater-goers were treated to such feats of terpsichorean skill as they had never before witnessed. M'lle Baretta is also a very skillful danseuse, and with Morlacchi gave the famous "Can-can" with much grace, eliciting an encore. The transformation scene surpasses in artistic beauty anything of the kind ever presented on the Pittsburgh stage, and no description can do it justice. The company, it is hoped, will be better perfect in their respective parts this evening, when the Fawn will be given with even greater success than last evening. The characters are in good hands, the cast being a very judicious one, and the dreaded first night having been got over we look for a perfect representation to-night.

VARIETIES.—The attractions at the Varieties were never more numerous or pleasing than at present. The drama, prestidigitation, songs, dances and burlesques, furnish a variety that cannot fail to please all tastes.

IMPORTANT TO VOTERS.

GET ASSESSED.

TIME EXPIRES OCTOBER 3d.

LIST OF ASSESSORS.

We would direct the attention of Republicans generally throughout the county, and especially those outside the working committees in the several sub-districts, to the importance of having every Republican voter properly assessed within the next ten days. Many votes can be secured in this way, and our majority greatly increased, by a proper division of the labor and prompt attention to this matter. Any Republican who knows that he is not assessed should call at once upon the Assessor of his district and have his name entered. The careless and indifferent will have to be looked after, and the Vigilance and Block Committees should set about the work without delay.

To qualify a person to vote, it is necessary that he shall be of the age of twenty-one years or more; shall have resided in this State at least one year, and in the election district where he offers to vote at least ten days immediately preceding the election, and within two years have paid a State or county tax which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. A citizen of the United States, who had previously been a qualified voter of this State, and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district and paid taxes as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in this State six months; while freemen, citizens of the United States, between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years, and having resided in this State one year and in the election district ten days, as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote, although they shall not have paid taxes.

We subjoin a list of the Assessors in the several wards, boroughs and townships of the county, for the information of all concerned:

UNION PACIFIC RAILWAY.

A Trip Through the Gold and Silver Fields of Colorado, between Denver and Gray's Peak.

Denver, one hundred and fifteen miles south of Cheyenne, is beautifully located on a plain at the junction of Cherry creek and the South Platte river, twelve miles from the foot of the mountains and five thousand feet above the level of the sea. At the present date it contains six thousand inhabitants. The buildings are mostly brick structures, and the traveler sees with astonishment churches, school houses and seminaries, hotels, stores and many elegant residences; also, a United States mint in this town of eleven years' growth, and on the borders of the "Great American Desert." For the benefit of the traveling community, a daily line of stages leave for the different localities and connect with the railroad. The scenery of this region is beautiful and varied beyond description. Pike's and Long's Peaks can be seen in the distance, besides two hundred miles of the snow-capped mountain range, so clear is the atmosphere.

Extensive and fertile fields surround the city for agricultural purposes, conveniences for manufacturing, a great and increasing market for its merchandise and products, and a salubrious climate—the latter already attracting a great many invalids, who are mostly benefited after a limited stay.

From Denver the traveler passes alternately through plains and bluffs for fifteen miles to Golden City, a small town, nominally the capital of Colorado Territory. Its houses are built of brick or concrete. Soon after leaving this city a mountain defile is entered, the summits on either side of which resemble forts. These granite bastions look as if placed there by nature to guard the hidden treasures beyond. On the summit of Guy Hill the first signs of the gold-seeker are discovered in the deserted diggings and the upheaved earth, where the energetic miner has been prospecting; here and there is evidence of success, the name of the claimant is put on a board and his claim recorded. For thirty miles he journeys on without impediment, save the ox-teams, toiling up and down this narrow road with their heavy leads to the mines. The drivers of these teams walk beside with long and formidable whips, as stoical as any ancient philosopher, who will not be disturbed or turn aside for any impatient travelers who may wish in vain to travel faster than the patient and slow going ox.

Three miles from Central City the first reduction works are reached. They belong to Prof. Hill, who seems to carry on the business profitably. On the way up many costly reduction works are met with, monuments of folly, which were built before the mines were fully explored.

At Blackhawk and Mound City are located the Gregory mines, eleven in number, besides the Consolidated Gregory. These mines are all rich in gold. Along Blackhawk is a remarkable phenomena—on the north gold is more abundant, and on the south side of the mountains silver. Blackhawk, Mound City and Central City are in fact one continuous town. The population are miners, and number four thousand voters. Wherever the eye wanders it encounters upright shafts and horizontal tunnels. Everyone here seems busy in trying to find the "root of all evil."

Central City boasts two banks, brick buildings; a Miners and Mechanics' Institute, in which there is a large and very interesting collection of ores, precious stones and other natural curiosities. The town is compactly built, the buildings being generally fine frames. At the banking-house of Smith & Co., a lump of gold yet warm from the retort was brought in, valued at $2,800; also a brick of silver valued at $800—the former from the Narraganset mine, the latter from a Georgetown mine. Two jewelry stores manufacture a great deal of native gold, silver and precious stones into rings, breastpins, earrings, &c., of the most elaborate workmanship, and find a ready sale from travelers and successful miners. On the top of the mountain above Central City is the Winnebago gold mine, worked by the owners both economically and profitably. Its shaft is three hundred feet deep, over which the reduction mill is built. They are sanguine of having a good thing, and it produces now $500 per week. On the plateau above these mining towns, the whole surface appears to have been upturned. Thousands of holes have been dug to be abandoned. Occasionally along the road may be seen gulch mining also, which in some places is very remunerative.

At Idaho the road widens into a valley through which flows South Clear Creek. This place has already considerable notoriety for its hot and soda springs; several large bathing houses have been erected for the accommodation of invalids and travelers, which are well patronized, and their owners have bright prospects for the future. Two miles from Idaho near the junction of Fall River and South Clear Creek are the "Profile Works;" their top certainly bears great resemblance to the human face. A few more miles of mountain road and Georgetown is reached, the center of the principal silver mining region. This town dates back but eighteen months and has a population of two thousand inhabitants. It has a good hotel, several reduction mills and some very good frame buildings. Through an avenue of immense granite boulders, the hotel is reached; the landlord is an Eastern man, has a well furnished and comfortable house, and during summer months plenty of patronage. Twelve miles from Georgetown is Gray's Peak, its snow covered summit having an elevation of 14,245 feet above tide water. Some miles above Georgetown, "Hellgate" is passed, a canyon about three hundred feet deep, through which a clear creek plunges, foaming as it leaps from rock to rock in a rapid torrent. A short distance from this wild and beautiful scene lies the Brown silver mine. This mine has disappointed its managers and stockholders very agreeably, as it proved three times as remunerative as it was expected to be at first.

Five miles from the Brown is the celebrated Batter mine settlement. The managers have entered a section of timber land, of which they make a profitable use; they have erected a fine sawmill, boarding-house, and a splendid reduction mill for the smelting process, which is in full operation now. They can stamp four and five tons of ore daily, and have considerable ore in the mill ready for operation, and are busy daily hauling ore in order to stock the mill before winter sets in, as the roads get impassable then, owing to the depth of snow.

On Kelsoe mountain, four miles above the settlement and above the timber line, is the boarding house and blacksmith shop for the miners. The lode is still further up in the naked rock. They employ twelve miners. The ascent to this mine is very laborious, owing to its great elevation and natural obstacles. The ore is very rich and the foreman of the mine speaks encouragingly of rich, extensive and permanent deposits at a greater depth than has yet been reached. During our stay there ores were blasted out that assayed from $500 to $16,250 to the ton, and these specimens are not far from the surface. It is reasonable to suppose that deeper in the rock the veins will still prove more rich, as a large part of these specimens contain brittle silver. Two miles more from Kelsoe Mountain is Gray's Peak.

Both Houses of Congress assembled yesterday, pursuant to adjournment. No business was transacted except the adoption of a resolution adjourning till the 16th day of October.

The news from Spain is deeply interesting. The infamous Queen appears to be in imminent danger of losing, if she has not really lost her crown. The revolt broke out in the naval squadron at Cadiz, and appears to have been quite general. The affairs of the country have for some time been in as bad a condition as they well could be, and should there be a successful revolution no one would be surprised.

It is about time for all who cannot afford to be in the minority at a Presidential election, to take care of themselves. The number, which is large, includes men and combinations of influence. The time is at hand when all such must definitively take a position, and make their future secure. In New York, we are assured, the movement has commenced. Men and influences which, if anything, up to the present moment, have been helping the Democrats, have commenced to "swing round the circle," with the view of coming out for Grant. "It is rumored," says the Herald, "that these shrewd New York politicians are looking as sharply as ever after their own interests, and will be found coming out of the Presidential contest all right, whatever may otherwise be the result." Nothing could be more certainly indicative of the result than this movement. "We are well assured," continues the Herald, "that a secret movement for Grant and Colfax has already obtained considerable headway."

MR. SEYMOUR ON THE GREENBACK AND BOND QUESTION.

In 1863 Gov. Seymour made use of the following language in a message addressed to the New York Legislature, touching the payment of interest upon State bonds: "When we sought the market of the world with our securities, we pledged ourselves to redeem them in the currency of the world." He then proceeded to show wherein foreign bondholders differed from citizens of the United States, reminding the Legislature that the latter might by political action justify [illegible], while the former

[illegible]

After an ingenious argument in favor of the principles and policy he advocates, he concluded by saying: "The saving proposed by not paying in coin is small and temporary, while the dishonor is lasting, and the pecuniary loss consequent upon the dishonor will be in the end enormous."

These views were retained by Mr. Seymour up to the hour he was nominated by the Tammany Convention, since which time he has concluded to throw principles and honesty to the dogs.

AN IMPORTANT ACCESSION TO GRANT FOR AN IMPORTANT REASON.

Hon. Nathaniel Boyden, who was elected to Congress from the Sixth District of North Carolina by the Democrats, has published a letter to his constituents, announcing himself as an independent candidate, and expressing his great dissatisfaction with the Tammany Convention. Mr. Boyden's letter is calm and argumentative. Alluding to the efforts now being made by the Democratic leaders to blind the people as to the real issue, he proceeds to demonstrate the impossibility of an escape from the evils which will attend the overthrow of the Reconstruction Acts. Like Brick Pomeroy, he regards Blair's letter "as much a part of the Democratic platform as if it had been incorporated in, published with, and declared a part thereof." He adduces the language of a number of the prominent men who framed the platform who both before and after the Convention assured him (Boyden) that they were "for upsetting all that had been done" by Congress. Every one of these men, whose names Mr. Boyden is willing to furnish, on their return from the Convention, "declared that Blair was their first choice, on account of the principles avowed in his letter." He adds that he denounced this "mad scheme in the strongest terms he could employ," but one of Blair's admirers responded by saying, "we were put out by the bayonet, and I am for putting them out by the bayonet." Here, continues Mr. Boyden, is the question:

[illegible]

Mr. Boyden, in publishing this letter and circulating it throughout his district, exhibits a spirit which promises well for North Carolina. A few documents of a similar nature addressed to the people of the Southern States by those who have represented them in Congress would, in a very short time, insure to the South peace and prosperity.

THE PRECURSOR OF DEFEAT.

The Democrats of the present day do not seem to be unanimous upon any one point save that of seeking and retaining power. Fancy that political trickster, Congressman Cary, traveling in company with John T. Hoffman, [illegible] or John Q. Adams, who, in his letter accepting the nomination of Governor conferred upon him by the Massachusetts Democratic Convention, makes use of the following language:

[illegible]

Mr. Adams's good sense and dread of future consequences leads him to express his honest conviction in the matter of "an indefinite extension of the intolerable nuisance of an irredeemable paper currency." He has the merit of consistency on his side. But the mass of the uninformed and unscrupulous men like Cary and others, who babble about things they know nothing of, [illegible] which they never take the trouble to test either by reflection or a careful comparison with the experience of nations, render the past and present Democracy as unlike as logic and jargon. It is not much wonder that men of experience in financial affairs express themselves "out of patience" with the greenback theory. They see that in this matter the Republican party are pursuing a course which time will prove to be correct, while the mass of the Democratic party will be convicted of gross error and gross stupidity in following false lights. Thus they qualify their [illegible] ment of the platform, calmly, but firmly dissent from this or that declaration, or, spurred by a sense of impending disaster, point out the delusion which has [illegible] the party. All of which, we argue, is the precursor of defeat and ruin.

STARVATION AS A DEMOCRATIC ARGUMENT.

The Democratic party lays special claim to being the party of free thought, independent action and equality. In many places in the present canvass it is making frantic efforts to secure the votes of workingmen, on account of its special sympathy with a large proportion of the population who were not born with silver spoons in their mouths, and are compelled to work in order to live. The right to labor, which after the right to live, is first on every man's bill of rights, they profess to particularly regard. But what is the action of this party? To say nothing about the damning fact that in the Democratic party the aristocratical and infamous slave system, till it was destroyed, found its sole support, and that even now the overthrow of the free system and the substitution, so far as possible, the old aristocratical system, is a grand object of the party, to say nothing about these glaring facts, we find this party proclaiming proscription and even starvation as the penalty it will inflict on not less than half a million of freemen, if as voters they venture to express their sentiments. Through all the South combinations of the former slave holders exist, to compel the negroes to come under their dictation as absolutely as when they were slaves, by agreeing to give employment to no man who shall dare to vote for Grant and Colfax. "Let them starve if they do it," is everywhere proclaimed. "Employment to none but those who vote for Seymour and Blair," is the startling cry hissed into the ears of the laboring population, by this labor-loving Democratic party! As a specimen we give the following resolution adopted by the Democratic Club at Quitman, Georgia:

[illegible]

This is the next thing to taking the life of a man, if as a voter he shall venture to be as independent as the neighbor who can manage to get a living without honestly earning it. The party that in the South thus systematizes starvation openly to crush the manhood out of honest labor, is the same party that in the North—right here in Pittsburgh—is professing to be the only true friend of labor, and on that ground is laying claims to the sympathy and votes of workingmen. We have this to say: A considerable number of poor negroes just emerged from slavery, and for that reason without a foothold in the world, may be coerced into voting as their former masters say, but we do not believe that they who coerce them will succeed in befooling the mechanics and laborers of the North into the belief that they are their special friends.

SMALL NOTES.

If anything more than the testimony of English authors were necessary to convince us that the dignity of an English elector never stands in the way of any advantage in the shape of personal profit, we have it in the testimony of the correspondent of the New York Herald, who has witnessed the operation of "returning" not a few members to the House of Parliament. [illegible]

The Democratic press are in the habit of disparaging the courage of colored men. [illegible]

GENERAL AND PARTICULAR.

The religious press generally regard the "wickedest" revival on Water street, New York, with considerable doubt. The Evangelist issues the following caution: "First of all, we wish to caution the religious public against magnifying the affair, or making a hero of the principal personages. It is quite doubtful what will come of it. As yet it is not a revival of religion. It is certainly a change of morals, but so far it can hardly claim to be anything more."

[illegible]

Upon a white marble monument near the street in [illegible] is the following inscription: "When Rhode Island, by her Legislature from 1845 to 1850, repudiated her Revolutionary debt, Dr. Richmond moved from that State to this borough, and selected this as his family burial-place, resolving that the remains of himself and family should not be disgraced by being a part of the common earth of a repudiating State."

Miss Susan B. Anthony, who was probably more influential in forming the Working-women's Association in New York than any other woman in the country, exhibited a rare degree of wisdom in refusing to indorse anything which would give the organization a political complexion. [illegible]

MAINE ELECTION IN THE SOUTH.

The Democratic Press Depressed and Discouraged.

The Richmond Dispatch of Wednesday says: "We are not disposed to be over-sanguine as to the election of Seymour." In another article it says:

"The result in Maine surprises us only as to the radical majority. We had no expectation of a Democratic victory there. Those who had viewed the prospect calmly could hardly have counted upon a radical defeat, and therefore cannot suffer any great depression in not being disappointed."

The Richmond Whig of the same date is much "depressed." It comments as follows:

Many persons were greatly disappointed and disturbed yesterday by the election returns from Maine, just as they were some days ago by the result of the Vermont election. Yet there was not a solitary individual of ordinary intelligence who was not satisfied in his mind that each of those States would give Republican majorities. All that could be rationally hoped for was an increase of Democratic strength, and a corresponding decrease of the Republican vote. There were few, perhaps, in our community who did not confidently anticipate a reduction of the Radical majority in Maine, while as confidently expecting that State to be carried against the Democracy. Their disappointment has produced depression of spirits, which is increased by the cheerless and sombre sky and rain.

The Richmond Examiner says:

The returns from the Maine election on Monday are sufficient to show that Maine has again gone for the Radicals. We have never attached much importance to the result as an indication of what we might expect in November. The character and pursuits of the people of Maine make them a "peculiar people," who are influenced by and influence nobody, except their fellow fanatics of New England. So, taking Maine as the criterion, no one need expect Seymour and Blair to receive majorities in any of the New England States, except Connecticut, and not even there, only it is, in fact, more a province of New York than a part of New England.

Next month, when Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana cast their votes we shall have something to base an opinion on the result in November. If these States go for the Radicals, we shall regard Grant's chances of election as very good.

* * *

WHEN GEN. GRANT went to Governor Yates to offer his services, he did not even mention that he fought at Palo Alto, Resaca de la Palma, Monterey, and served under Gen. Scott in his campaign from Vera Cruz to the City of Mexico, or that he had been promoted to First Lieutenant on the field for gallantry at Molino del Rey, and brevetted a Captain for brilliant and skillful fighting upon the heights of Chapultepec. Not a word of all this—nor did the Governor remember it—but he simply said he had been educated at the expense of the Government and, as the Government was in trouble, desired to serve it in any situation he might be placed. Assigned to a clerk's desk he went to work quietly and faithfully. Such is the man who rose to the highest place in the army through the power of his talent for doing well what was before him. He never asked any body to promote him. He never seemed to care for promotion. And yet there are those who say that Gen. Grant is not a great man. If he is not who is or has been great in the world's history.—Chicago Post.

COE'S DYSPEPSIA CURE

"CONSIDERABLE MERIT."

[From O. O. Thwing, M. D., New Philadelphia, O.]

NEW PHILADELPHIA, OHIO,
December 21, 1864.

MR. CLARK: I am acquainted with several persons who have used Coe's Dyspepsia Cure, and from their testimony I am convinced that the medicine possesses considerable merit. I should be glad to recommend it to my patients who may need such a medicine, and also to use, when occasion may require, in my own practice; but our code of ethics, to which I freely subscribed, disallows me to use a medicine the ingredients of which I am unacquainted with. Most manufacturers of proprietary medicines do not hesitate to furnish their formulas to physicians, and if you are one of those, please send me your formula, and it is quite likely that it will lead to the sale of a few bottles, to say the least. I would suggest that it would be advisable to make depositories of the medicine in more places than you have in this State. There are many flourishing towns, where your medicine cannot yet be found, and where, I have no doubt, from what I know of the medicine, they would have a large sale. If you do not wish to have your complete formula known, please state the ingredients composing it.

O. O. THWING, M. D.

"VALUABLE THING."

[From James M. Clark, Baldwinsville, N. Y.]

GENTS: Allow me to say that, although, as a general thing, I have a pretty poor opinion of patent medicine, still I am disposed to regard your "Coe's Dyspepsia Remedy" as a valuable thing. From boyhood I have been troubled with the most terrible turns of sick headache that ever fell to the lot of suffering humanity, and, although I have swallowed almost every known specific for this disease, none has ever seemed to permanently benefit me but this "Coe's Dyspepsia Cure." I have not yet taken quite a bottle, and since I have commenced its use I have not had even a symptom of the headache. This is two months since. Previous to that I usually had it at least once a week, sometimes twice.

Respectfully, JAMES M. CLARK.

"THE BEST ARTICLE."

[From T. J. Rand, Muskegon, Mich.]

MUSKEGON, MICH., May 27, 1867.

Messrs. C. G. CLARK & CO.:

Having used Coe's Dyspepsia Cure, I can recommend it to all who are troubled with that complaint. It cured me after having suffered for ten years, and tried many other remedies without receiving any relief. I believe it to be the best article before the people for the cure of Dyspepsia.

Yours, &c.,
T. J. RAND,
Banker, Muskegon, Mich.

"A PERFECT CURE."

[From J. H. Moulton, Battle Creek, Mich.]

BATTLE CREEK, May 5, 1868.

Messrs. ANDREWS & GRANDINE, Druggists:

In reply to your inquiry as to results in using the bottle of Coe's Dyspepsia Cure we purchased from you, we take the first opportunity to state that having used it for Indigestion, I can certify that in my case it has proved itself a perfect cure.

I most cheerfully and earnestly recommend it to every one who has suffered from the ravages and horrors of this terrible disease. Yours truly

JOHN F. MOULTON.

"INSTANT RELIEF."

[From J. W. Niel, M. D., Delaware, Ohio.]

Messrs. CONNELL & Co., Druggists:

In reply to your inquiry as to results in using the bottle of Coe's Dyspepsia Cure we purchased from you, we take the first opportunity to state that, for a young man, I am an old Dyspeptic, and have tried almost everything in the line of prescriptions and formulas, from physicians and books, and never found anything to equal Coe's Dyspepsia Cure. The first dose I took of the Cure, I felt almost instant relief, and went about my business in a happier mood than I had for years before. After finishing one bottle, I arrived at the happy conclusion that I was cured, and had it not been for my own imprudence in eating, I doubt whether the disease would ever have returned. I most cheerfully and earnestly recommend it to every one who has suffered from the ravages and horrors of this terrible disease.

Yours, truly,
J. W. NIEL, M. D.

"VERY MODEST."

[From H. M. T. Smith, Dunkirk, N. Y.]

DUNKIRK, N. Y., May 1, 1868.

GENTS—I inclose your circular. I know of two parties—wives of prominent citizens in this place—who have been greatly benefitted, if not cured, by the use of your Dyspeptic Cure, but they will not consent to the public use of their names. And thus the matter rests, with a steadily increasing sale.

Yours, respectfully,
H. M. T. SMITH.

"REPUTATION GAINING."

[From Rev. Allen Crowell, Brookville, Pa.]

LUTHERSBURG, PA., May 2, 1867.

MR. JOSEPH FLEMING:

SIR—"Coe's Dyspepsia Cure" is gaining a reputation amongst our people. The medicine already used is having the desired effect. A friend wishes me to get a bottle for him, for which I send you $1. Send to my address, as soon as possible.

Yours, &c.,

CAST STEEL SAW

And Your Mill will do Good Work

Our Saws are Oil Tempered, Patent Ground, made to Run well.

You will find each Saw of one Temper, no Hard and Soft Spots in the same Saw.

We accomplish this by our Patent Tempering Process, and you can not get this from any other Saw Maker, as we own the Patents for the United States.

We do not claim to make a cheaper Saw than any one else, but one that will run at the word GO, and will give no trouble, and will keep round longer; because being uniform with Temper, it will not wear on one side faster than the other.

We invite correspondence, or an interview with the practical man of your firm.

FIVE ACRES OF GROUND

AND

Large Building

Suitable for an Academy, Asylum or Boarding House,

FOR SALE AT NEW BRIGHTON.

There is now offered for sale on very liberal terms, and at a very low price, the property known as the New Brighton Retreat, an Asylum for Invalid Females, finely situated on the table land, in rear of the Railroad Depot at New Brighton, 28 miles west of Pittsburgh. The Grounds embrace five acres, well improved with Trees, and command very fine views of the surrounding country. The Building is a substantial Brick, four stories high, with 30 rooms, being well arranged for an Academy, for which it was originally built. There is a field open here for an institution of this kind. The attention of Teachers, Orphan Guardians and others is specially invited. The Building could be converted into one or two fine residences, and the Grounds disposed of to good advantage by the resident. The advanced age of Dr. Kendrick, Superintendent, is the reason for putting this Property into the market.
